

PREPOSITIONS

Some examples

| | | |
|----------|-------------|------------|
| about | Down | out |
| above | During | outside |
| across | Except | over |
| after | For | past |
| against | From | round |
| all over | In | since |
| along | In front of | through |
| among | Inside | throughout |
| around | Into | to |
| at | Like | towards |
| before | Near | under |
| behind | Next to | until |
| below | Of | up |
| beneath | Off | upon |
| beside | On | with |
| between | On top of | within |
| beyond | Onto | without |
| by | Opposite | |

Prepositions locate nouns and noun groups in time, place, manner or causality.

Prepositions are words that begin an adjectival phrase or an adverbial phrase.

An adjectival phrase provides information about a noun.

An adverbial phrase provides information about a verb.